BigRio is excited to announce the recognition by the Greater New England Minority Supplier Development Council (GNEMSDC) for the annual Innovate and Elevate award!

The Innovate and Elevate Award recognizes outstanding innovation in a product, component, or service. This award was introduced to highlight a member company that is elevating the economy and improving society through the successful execution of a cutting-edge business model.

BigRio is proud to be both a member and Platinum Sponsor of GNEMSDC. We have recently launched several innovative solutions including AI eCommerce Recommender System, Healthcare Claims real-time scoring system, Clinical Trials Cohort Selection, AI-Driven Drug Discovery, and more!

BigRio Managing Partner, Rohit Mahajan graciously accepted this recognition at the conference. "The Covid Pandemic highlighted many weaknesses within businesses and the global supply chain. The BigRio team innovated to overcome the challenges while meeting and exceeding our client's expectations. It was an incredibly demanding time for us, and this recognition is a great honor to all nominees," stated Rohit Mahajan.
